Local hospitals preparing for a rise in admissions

COMMUNITY hospitals in Axminster, Honiton, Ottery, Seaton and Sidmouth are all putting measures in place to be prepared for what could become a testing winter.

Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, which manages the hospitals, is expecting a higher demand for its services and an increase in hospital admissions during the winter.

To cope, the trust has announced a raft of measures including:

- Extra beds at times of peak demand

- Increased ward rounds to assist with prompt discharge

- Extra rapid response and community staff to support people in their own homes, avoid admissions and support discharges from hospital

The trust also staged an emergency planning exercise, dubbed Winter Wonderland, at the end of November to test its resilience and how it would prioritise services in the event of severe weather.

Kate Lyons, the trust's director of operations, said: "The colder weather at this time of year always brings an increase in health problems, including respiratory illness, flu, norovirus and injuries caused by falls or slips.

"We have robust plans in place to cope with the extra pressure this puts on our acute, community and specialist services, and to deal with severe weather if it comes.

"Our priorities are to ensure critical services operate as normal in our hospitals and to identify and care for our most vulnerable patients, with the aim of avoiding unnecessary admission to hospital where possible.

"Our community nursing teams have been visiting vulnerable patients at home to ensure they are prepared."

Travelling from Honiton to Bethlehem

THE TRUE meaning of Christmas came to Honiton as the annual Churches Together nativity procession took place.

A happy band led the children from the Church of the Holy Family to St Paul's Church with the procession singing along the way.

Sharing the traditional nativity story and spreading the goodwill of Christmas, people of all ages joined in together with a real donkey, which gained much attention from the crowds.

St Paul's children's worker, Rose Millard said: "There was story telling and decoration making beforehand and people of all ages dressed up and joined in.

"It was a beautiful night for walking through the streets of Honiton and sharing the joy of the shepherds and excitement of the Kings alongside a very well-behaved donkey."

Karting success

THE 2012 season at the Dunkswell Kart Club provided some of the closest and most competitive racing in the club's history with driving standards also improving throughout the year.

Looking back over the year, 931 drivers competed at the South West's premier circuit with numbers peaking at 121 for the July round.

If any circuit is bucking the national trend in entries, Dunkswell is at the forefront of the revival - a flowing, super smooth track with close and competitive racing aligned with a friendly atmosphere has attracted drivers from all over the country.

The NKRA chose the circuit to host the prestigious Formula Blue championship and a tie up with Llandow Kart Club with the Dragon Challenge saw most of the silverware crossing the bridge back to the West Country!

Interestingly, weather wise, despite the tracks reputation, the dry weather out qualified the wet by 6 to 3 although when it rained it was biblical!

Off-road walkway

A £390,000 off-road walk and cycleway has opened in Axminster. The new stretch is part of the Stop Line Way route and runs from Cloakham in Axminster to Weycroft.

It opened on Friday, December 21st and links to on-road sections at either end.

The Stop Line Way is part of the National Cycle Network, Route 33, and when complete, the 70-mile trail will run from Bristol Channel to Lyme Bay, passing through Devon, Somerset, and Dorset.

From the editor's chair Be happy, be content...

ALTHOUGH the dateline on this week's issue is December 25th, the Christmas celebrations will be over by the time you read this column and you will be thinking about how to welcome in the New Year - 2013.

The arrival of a new year is traditionally a time when we take stock of our lives. I'm not big on New Year celebrations, and to be honest I often feel a bit deflated on New Year's Eve, pondering on the highs and lows of the previous 12 months and wondering what the next 12 will bring.

I always follow a tradition that my father religiously stuck to, as did his father before him, by opening our front door and welcoming in the New Year.

It's one of those rituals like always buying a bottle of Advocaat at Christmas, just in case someone wants a Snowball. They never do and I end up throwing it away the following November!

I'm not one of those people who makes New Year resolutions either, mainly because I have the will power of a gnat and have usually broken them by January 2nd.

The older I get the less I want to change my lifestyle. A few minor adjustments have already been forced on me by health issues, so giving up alcohol is no longer an option as I rarely take a tipple these days. I am sure my doctor would like me to loose a few more pounds but as I come from a long line of gluttons, and food seems to get more important to me as the years progress (how sad is that!), there's no way any New Year resolution would last more than a day or two.

I would like to get greater equilibrium in the balance between work and my personal life but have worked in the newspaper business for nearly 50 years now, I'm not sure I've really had much of a personal life so I don't think there will be too many changes in that direction.

But as I am one those highly fortunate people who thrives on what I do, I really wouldn't want it to be any different.

All this waffle gets me to the end of this column and gives a final opportunity to wish all those of you who read this missive every week, those who advertise in our papers and those who keep us informed on what is going on in Pulman's Country, a very happy 2013 - and a contented one as well.

COLYTON

Kilimanjaro climb for meningitis

A UNIVERSITY student from Colyton is looking to peak by climbing Kilimanjaro in Tanzania.

Natalie Callaghan is set to take on the challenge in June next year with 34 fellow students.

She is currently in her second year of studying English literature at the the University of Surrey and, apart from trying to reach the top, she will raise money for charity.

Natalie said: "Every student must raise £2,650 for their chosen charity, mine being the Meningitis Research Foundation; £800 of which must be raised by February."

The challenge's formal name is Kilimanjaro Summit Trek, and Natalie's team will take part under the banner of an organisation called Student Adventures.

She said: "It was my university that chose the two charities (Meningitis Research Foundation and Practical Action) so we had a choice of the two.

"I decided on MRF because I felt it's easier for people to relate to, as it can affect anyone.

"For example, my great aunt contracted it and I know of others that have been affected.

"I am in the process of getting as much sponsorship as possible and I am also planning a variety of fundraising events.

"Any amount of sponsorship would be hugely appreciated and would be put to good use by the foundation. Alternatively, any raffle prizes would be appreciated too."

Anyone interested in sponsoring her can find out more online at www.myraising.com/natalie-callaghan/climbingkili.

SEATON

Museum celenrates

AXE Valley Heritage Museum volunteers celebrated the year with their annual open weekend, welcoming visitors and regular supporters to celebrate Christmas.

The annual open weekend aims to celebrate the year, welcoming all to enjoy mince pies and wine whilst enjoying the exhibits in the museum.

As part of the event, a temporary exhibition featuring photographs of Beer villagers throughout the past 100 years became a new addition to the museum.

OTTERY

National award for dementia service

AN INNOVATIVE service that enhances the lives of older people with dementia in East Devon has secured a prestigious national award.

The Rowan and Linden centres are among only eight winners of an Innovation and Best Practice in Community Hospitals Award for 2012.

The centres, based at Ottery St Mary, provide a safe haven and ongoing support for people with dementia, anxiety or depression or who are socially isolated.

The awards are organised by the Community Hospitals Association (CHA).

Chief executive Barbara Moore, who visited East Devon on a recent fact-finding mission, said: "I was very impressed with what they are doing at Ottery.

"The staff there are excellent and the service and care they provide for dementia patients is first-class."

The Rowan and Linden team will collect their award at the CHA's annual conference at the Marriott Worsley Park Hotel and Country Club in Manchester in May 2013.

Each winner will present their project to delegates during a series of workshops.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

Linda Chester, Methodist Minister, opens this week for us - "Is Bethlehem a real place?" Fifteen year old Shelley was amazed to read "Bethlehem" on our Pilgrimage itinerary. Sadly Shelley, as so many others, had lumped the Christmas story together with Father Christmas and every other fairy tale.

What is the real part of Christmas for you? In our society there is so much emphasis on *spend, spend, spend*at Christmas. It's all too easy for the true message of Christmas to be side-lined. And yet Christians are celebrating a life-changing experience, something that is real for each person, young or old.

We believe the Almighty, Creator God holds out His hand in love, through the birth of Jesus Christ, to restore the broken relationship with humanity. A new way forward with hope, peace, joy and reconciliation is possible. How much our world needs this message today; a message that is real.

It is understandable that the women bishops topic for Anglican Churches and people will not die down. Following discussions at Lambeth Palace a fresh working group will meet in February to review the position and lead on to discussions in May in the House of Bishops, to agree elements of new proposals which will then be presented to the General Synod in July 2013.

Meanwhile the latest census figures show that the number of Christians in England and Wales has fallen by more than four million in a decade. There is also a decline in marriage, which is attributed to the rise in individualistic thinking. Archbishop Rowan Williams used his last speech in the House of Lords as Primate to warn that British society too often wants older citizens 'off our hands'. He was opening a debate on how elderly people should be viewed as 'participants' in society rather than merely 'passengers'.

Other senior bishops have agreed to tweet their Christmas sermons for the first time this year. This is part of a campaign to spread the news of the meaning of Christmas to millions of Twitter users. The Pitch Filmmakers offer ideas for short films inspired by the Bible - and want votes for choice for favourites. The competition is to come up with great, contemporary films, drawing on Bible inspiration. Now into its fourth year, it encourages entrants to give Scripture 'the Sherlock treatment' - taking a great story from one particular time, then transposing it to another time and place.

See this year's pitches and vote at enterthepitch.com/view/

We close this Column for 2012 by wishing A Happy Christmas to all our readers-and hope you will be with us in 2013.

Honiton children sing their hearts out for festive show

■ HONITON Primary School pupils spread festive cheer during their Christmas carol concert.

Taking to the stage, smartly dressed in shirt and ties, the Key Stage Two children sang their hearts out and told the nativity story.

The group were joined by a handful of children in full costume who played the key nativity characters and helped tell the traditional story to the many family members and friends who came to watch them.

YOUR VIEWS & LETTERS

What's the council doing for Honiton?

I HAVE to ask a sad question. What does the town council do for Honiton?

This is the time of year when High Street should be buzzing. This begs the question – "Is it?", and if not, why not?

I fear the answer is that Honiton High Street is quieter than it should be, and the reason is fairly simple: people will go to places which are attractive and easily accessible.

Unfortunately, although gifted with a diverse and interesting high street, there has been little effort on the part of the town council to capitalise on this and attract footfall to the area.

If one goes to Ottery, Cullompton, Sidmouth or Exeter, one is struck by the efforts to decorate the towns and make them attractive to visitors and potential shoppers. With one or two notable exceptions (bless the Toy Shop and the church!) one could easily miss Honiton's "decorations".

I fear that, although highlighted by the Christmas season (except that it is hardly lighted at all), the issue is long-standing and reflects badly on the town council whose short-sighted lack of effort and initiative is leading to a slow decline.

The remedies are not rocket science. The town should make its traders accessible. Why are out-of-town facilities so attractive? Simple! They have cheap or free car parks close by!

Another story added to the Lace Walk car park would greatly ease the situation and, as there are few residential properties in the immediate vicinity, this would not be hugely contentious.

Character features should be cherished and preserved, such as "The Crystal Stream" which used to flow along the high Street. Places such as Beer and Chard proudly feature such assets. Restoration will not get any cheaper and the more it is delayed, the more it will cost.

I can almost hear the council demanding to know where the money is coming from. Let's face it, in terms of the overall precept, some half decent Christmas decorations would not cost a lot.

Restoring the crystal stream is in the noise level. The car park is a bit more substantial, but I wonder if the monies set aside to add to the funding of the Beehive Community Centre could be set towards something beneficial to the town?

I may be sceptical, but could it be that the council is saving every penny in order to proceed with the Community Centre?

You know, the Community Centre that a referendum showed was not wanted by the majority who voted? Yes, that's the one.

The one that just happens to have new town council offices as part of the plan? And didn't EDDC suggest that the plans were too ambitious?

Whilst I'm on my soap box, a new community centre would be great, but please can we do it properly or not at all? I.e. can it have an auditorium big enough to hold significant events? Say seats for 400 and a demountable stage to accommodate an orchestra, choir or dance troupe. If not, we end up with just another village hall.

Oh, and the poor old town council. Yes, they do need premises but the old magistrates courts suggest themselves and wouldn't they be suitable with a minimum of refurbishment?

Maybe I'm barking up the wrong tree, as the council, in its supreme wisdom, decided that it did not need advice from Mary Portas who I believe has some kind of record in this sort of thing...

They obviously think that they know it all. Oh Please!

Christopher Niles,
Payhembury

Highs and lows of the Rotary year

MORE than 100 people descended on the Guildhall for Rotary Club of Axminster's Christmas lunch on Friday, December 14th.

A total of 108 places had been prepared for the annual event and guests were treated to food, drink, speeches and could also try their luck in the raffle which concluded the event.

Rotary Club of Axminster President Malcolm Reynolds looked both back and forward during his speech.

Although it had been a difficult year in terms of cancelled or altered events because of bad weather, he managed to find lots of highlights when looking back.

These included the local response to a collection in aid of July flood victims, how those involved rallied round to put on a splendid indoor Jubilee party when the planned outdoor one fell victim to the rain, and much more.

Looking forward, he mentioned increased co-operation with Axe Valley Community College, and the club's forthcoming involvement with the town's beer festival.

He also said the club is planning to stage a concert in the Guildhall in March, with details to be announced.

TEAM Symes-Colvin is the new holder of The Old Inn Trophy, Axminster Chamber of Commerce's top skittles prize.

Chamber members gathered at Old Inn, Kilmington, on Tuesday, December 11th for its Christmas social.

Approximately 20 members turned up and the event included a skittles pairs competition.

It was won by Mervyn Symes and Old Inn landlord Duncan Colvin, who made sure Shane and Claire Morgan could not defend the title they won the previous year.

Chamber chairman Shane Morgan wasn't too downbeat and said: "It was a lovely buffet and a good time was had by all."

Dance club celebrates Christmas

More than 30 people arrived at Offwell Village Hall for a celebratory meeting when Honiton Folk Dance Club held their Christmas party.

With the stage and hall decorated with Christmas props and tinsel, The Amycrofters band took to the stage playing festive tunes alongside caller, Simon Maplesden.

Beginning with Christmas carols and well-known winter classics, the room was full of people dancing and singing the night away. Alongside the celebratory dancing, there was also a bring and share supper followed later by an extra special raffle.

The club thanked Andrew and June Mycroft of the Amycrofters for arranging and supporting the event as well as all their members for the support during the past year.

The club will restart in the New Year on January 7th. Anyone who is interested in making new friends and having fun with a little light exercise, is invited to phone Andrew or June on 01404 46451 or on 07976 533 520. in the past year.

Modern twist on the classic nativity at Littletown Primary

KEY Stage Two pupils from Littletown Academy Primary School in Honiton took to the stage for a festive production of "Stable Manners".

The modern twist on the classic nativity had the children in full costume – from an updated version of the famous angels, Luke and Gabriel complete with boom headphones, to an amusing trio featuring three stable animals, the sheep, chicken and a cow who had many a comical moment on stage.

Dancing eggs, two rats in search of a sewer, two naughty robbers on the run and a pair of camels also added to the humorous elements of the play.

Telling the story of the nativity, the production featured a long list of musical numbers sang by the main chorus of Key Stage Two children, mixed in with many funny moments from budding comedians and fun choreography.

Young street dancer, Jonny Glover took to the stage and wowed the audience with his modern dance skills, wearing one silver glove and attire similar to Michael Jackson in the "Glory Rap".

Riley Burgess had the crowds silent as he performed a peaceful and calming solo performance depicting the nativity scene.

Among the amusing gags, uplifting musical numbers and festive performances, the true meaning of Christmas still shone through as the whole cast came together for their finale singing "Celebrate this Christmas".

Staff at Littletown Academy would like to thank all the children for their hard work, learning lines and songs in a short time.

Thanks were also given to the staff members for their contributions to "Stable Manners", including the backstage preparations and stage choreography, music and lighting.

Wheelbarrow of goodies!

MEMBERS of the Honiton and District Lions Club were out fundraising this week along their Christmas barrow.

The wheelbarrow, provided by Offwell builder Dennis Rutter, was packed full of Christmas treats, goodies and gifts and was a tempting prize for passers by.

The Honiton and District Lions Club would like to thank the public for their ongoing support and would like to wish all their supporters a very merry Christmas.

Children present 'Hey Ewe' to family

KEY Stage One children from Littleton Primary Academy in Honiton put on a Christmas performance of "Hey Ewe" to a crowd of family and friends to end the year on a high.

The "baa-rilant" nativity musical had the children taking to the stage in a variety of colourful and fun costumes, in particular sheep outfits, as they told the Christmas story through songs and dance.

Filled with the hustle and bustle of the townspeople, and the peace and tranquility of the calming stable, the children took the audience on a journey ending with the traditional meaning of Christmas when Jesus was born.

The performance had an extra twist at the end when the children all stood to sing a number of well known carols without music, with parents and grandparents joining in and enjoying the festive spirit.

MEMBERS of the Royal British Legion in Honiton held their annual Christmas Bazaar this week.

Held at the Mackarness Hall, the bazaar was full of stalls selling homemade cakes and festive nibbles, refreshments, bric-a-brac and Christmas gifts.

The group also ran their Christmas Poppy Appeal quiz and various draws and competitions to boost funds. Honiton's Royal British Legion Women's Section also joined in the fun, helping to run stalls and promoting the services of the group.

Branch treasurer, Gillian Hillman, said: "Our annual Christmas bazaar has been well attended and has gone very well.

"We are really pleased to have welcomed so many to our

Legion's festive bazaar

fundraising morning and enjoyed getting into the festive spirit to raise funds for the legion both in regards to county welfare and the local area.

"We look forward to a programme of exciting fundraising events next year."

Primary school gives food bank a boost

KEY Stage One performers from the Prickly Hay play: Flo Winter, Samuel Hemmens, Stephen Johns, and Jacob Turl alongside donations from visiting parents, friends and family to their afternoon performance

VISITORS to Seaton Primary School's 'Prickly Hay' Key Stage One nativity and Key Stage Two carol concerts have been giving Seaton's food bank a boost.

Guests to the school's Christmas activities are welcomed to donate to charity and this year it was decided that donations of food should be made to support the worthy cause within Seaton.

Festive exercise session for Seaton Age UK group

LADIES from the Age UK Devon 'Body Moves' group enjoyed a special festive session this week complete with Christmas party.

The group welcomes up to 40 regulars at Seaton Methodist Church every Tuesday from 11:30 am-12:30pm for gentle exercises aimed at keeping those aged 50 plus fit, active and healthy.

The group enjoyed a smaller exercise session than usual led by their approved tutor Sam Neil before enjoying a bring and share lunch featuring party nibbles, Christmas treats and mulled wine.

The clan of ladies also held a special game, with images of the members as youngsters pinned all over the walls and the chance to 'guess the baby' and match it to their friends.

At the end of the session, members of the group presented their instructor with a gift of thanks and an especially written poem, for all her involvement and dedication to the club.

Body Moves will resume in the New Year on Tuesday, January 8th and all are welcome, including younger members of the community, with the first session free and sessions at a cost of £3 a week thereafter.

Beer residents treated to festive dinner

A HANDFUL of Beer residents were treated to a special Christmas meal by members of the village's Youth Hostel Association (YHA).

Sixteen dedicated villagers arrived at Beer's YHA for a celebratory evening where they were able to meet with staff and discover what the hostel had to offer, whilst receiving a gift back for their commitment to the village.

Guests at the event were parish councillor Trevor Wood and his wife Jean, Norah and Henry Jagers, Wendy Cummins of the RNLI, Kim and Jayne Applin, Scout leaders Nigel Groves and Fiona Gage, Annie Boalch, Liz Fahey, Jan Beavis, Mary Hawker and Debbie & Michael Barry.

Chosen for their involvement in the village, the group were just a handful of worthy villagers to the dinner, with the main emphasis on giving back to them as they had given to the local community of Beer.

The guests arrived at the YHA and were greeted with hot mulled apple juice and mince pies in the lounge before moving to the dining hall for a three-course dinner featuring homemade tomato soup, roast chicken and all the trimmings and Christmas pudding.

The group was then taken on a tour of the YHA, which for many brought back nostalgic feelings from the past and reinstated their childhood excitement from school trips and holidays.

Manager of the Beer YHA, Mike Ruiter, said: "I was really pleased with the response to the meal and it was good to meet so many interesting and exciting people from the village - I wish we could have had more."

"I was not expecting especially to see such excitement from the guests to be in a youth hostel and the nostalgia that went alongside it, and it was a pleasure to give them a tour around the building."

"I am glad so many came and had a good evening and it was inspiring and energising to meet a group of such dedicated individuals who work so closely to help the local community."

"Although forming bonds with the local community will help the youth hostel, the evening was really about giving back to the many people who support the village."

"Individuals such as Jan Beavis, who created a special surprise garden for Mary Hawke, really show what community is about and I am glad I could help to celebrate their work."

GIVING TO THE LOCAL COMMUNITY | Guests enjoyed an evening at Beer's Youth Hostel and were treated to a meal to thank them for their work in the village

Car park upgrade completed

BEER Parish Council is pleased to report the completion of the project to upgrade the Townsend coach and car park.

Resurfacing of the site was completed in early December and new white lines have been applied to improve the layout.

The parish council received a grant of £5,000 from Devon County Council's 'Invest in Devon' fund towards the costs of the project.

The Invest in Devon fund aims to support community projects from funds raised by the sale of Exeter Airport.

The grant has enabled the parish council to develop an under used asset for the benefit of the local community.

The parish council would like to thank Devon County Councillor, Jim Knight, for supporting this project and helping to bring it to fruition.

Beer Parish Council acquired Townsend coach and car park from East Devon District Council in 2011. Following a review of parking arrangements, the parish council extended parking facilities at the site to provide 24 hour, year round, guaranteed permit parking for nine cars and two small commercial vehicles.

A spokesperson for the parish council said: "Tourism is a key industry in Beer and Townsend also provides free coach parking during the day and overnight permit parking for three coaches."

"Townsend coach and car park is a highly valued community asset in Beer where parking is in demand from both local residents and visitors to the village."

CHRISTMAS food shoppers at Seaton's Tesco store were given a helping hand this weekend by the 1st Beer Scouts and Axe Air Explorers.

Over 15 young people, parents and Leaders took part packing bags and taking trolleys to cars.

Explorer Scout leader, Fiona Gage, said: "It was a tiring day, but the amount raised was a tribute to the hard work that the group's members put in. They were all still smiling at the end of the day."

Youngster Maddie White added: "I really enjoyed today but it was hard work."

Eleven-year-old Mia Bartlett quietly carried on packing beside her.

Nigel Groves, Group Scout Leader, said "We would like to thank all of the people who visited Tesco that day for their generosity raising £443.59 and especially Tesco Seaton for having us there."

"The money will be spent on replacing camping equipment due to the high usage it's had over the past six years or so."

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AWLISCOMBE

MEMBERS were welcomed to the December meeting with a glass of mulled wine and carol singing in the background.

There was a bring and share supper followed by delicious sweets made by the committee.

The Christmas market proved very popular as did the competition: a 'seasonal fascinator' attracted 14 entries and the winners were Marilyn Wright and Heather Penwarden.

The president, Olive Price, organised the painting of jam jars for night lights. Santa's little helpers, Irene Maynard and Mary Martin, distributed presents to everyone. The evening concluded with more carol singing.

KILMINGTON

AFTER Jerusalem and apologies at the December meeting, the minutes were read and - arising from that - the skittles match has had to be rearranged.

An invitation was received from Seaton WI for four people to go to a party. The Christmas dinner at Seaton had been enjoyed by everyone. Final arrangements were made for the visit to the pantomime at Torquay and there were still a few seats available.

Members were urged to answer the questionnaire in WI Life about the future of Denman College (the WI college, near Abingdon). Various county activities were brought to our notice.

The mince pie making demonstration by Phyllis Bellworthy and Barbara Woodsford followed and then the pies were tasted with our coffee and tea.

They were pronounced excellent and the demonstrators were thanked by Joy. We then enjoyed a game of bingo.

Flower of the month was won by Joy and the competition by Christine. After Christmas wishes all round the meeting closed.

Next month's meeting on January 10th will feature Brian Carlson talking about pelargoniums.

HONITON AFTERNOON

ONCE again December has been a very festive month for the Honiton Afternoon WI.

The annual Devon Federation Carol Service took place in Exeter Cathedral and was much enjoyed by the members who attended. Nineteen members went to the Otter Inn at Weston for a Christmas Meal.

The food and service was extremely good and it was a very happy occasion. At their usual monthly meeting members were entertained by Farmer George and his Missus (Max and Maggie Pipe). They kept everyone very amused with their humorous poems and stories.

The afternoon ended with tea and hot mince pies. The first meeting in 2013 is on January 14th, at 2pm, in the Methodist Chapel. The speaker will be PCSO Barry Redford. Visitors are always very welcome to attend.

AXMINSTER & DISTRICT HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

THE Axminster & District Horticultural Society recently held their Annual General Meeting.

The president, Mary Benger, opened the proceedings by welcoming the members. She said it had been another successful year thanks due to the chairman and committee.

Mrs Benger said how disappointed everyone had been when the weather caused the cancellation of the show but the committee was now busy preparing for next year.

The chairman thanked the committee for their hard work and drew the members attention to 2013 when the horticultural society will start meeting on the third Thursday of the month at 2:30pm. The venue will be the same.

It had been a good year for outings and despite the bad weather the outings fared well, being mainly dry and sunny.

Naomi Lawrence gave an interesting and vibrant talk entitled 'Building a Show Garden at Hampton Court.'

Brought up on a farm and being fourth generation of a farming family she looked to agriculture but decided to go into horticulture instead. Naomi was the youngest garden designer to make a garden for a RHS show.

A student at Kingston Maurwood College, in her first year as part of her work she had done a 'Garden Design'.

During her summer break she went to Guernsey to work sharing a top floor flat with 25 other girls. During this time she was asked to tidy up and get ready a garden which was entered into a prestigious competition which won Large Gold.

The RHS were looking for young unknown garden designers for the Hampton Court Show and the college asked Naomi if they could send in her design.

She was assured the she would hear quite quickly but the months went by and suddenly she heard she had been chosen. It was to be built four days after she finished college.

The next step was to be told you had to find your own accommodation for two weeks, including any helpers - a site on a camp and the loan of a caravan solved that.

Much of the structure of the garden needed to be made beforehand. Though they could do the basics several firms came to the rescue to finish off items.

Sponsors needed to be found to supply timber, etc, and many local firms came to her aid.

Plants had to be mature and a 10ft Silver Birch was needed and finally found. Wild flowers needed to be flowering at the right time; though sown over a period they all caught up.

A nursery gathered them up and worked a miracle on them. Shrubs though obtainable from nurseries were not large enough so Grannies garden was raided.

She needed help, a landscape gardener plus muscle. She arrived at Hampton Court with landscape gardener and Dad, just a team of three. Never having been to a show she had no idea what to expect.

The site in a corner sloped. Asking officials about this they said try the two gardens next to you, one was the BBC's and the other belonged to a council.

One supplied top soil the other machinery and the problem was solved. After a week of toiling and getting the walls built and paths laid, the two man help departed but family and friends moved in for the planting and it was completed on time.

Naomi told the members that being so young meant that she did not worry as much then as she would have now. But the end result was a Silver Medal which was well deserved by someone so young and talented. Everyone enjoyed the talk and relived the experience with her.

● The Axminster & District Horticultural Society will hold its next meeting in 2013 at the United Reformed Church Hall, Chard Street at 2:30pm on Thursday, January 17th.

The speakers will be Mr & Mrs Squires talking on 'Gardens of Scotland and Ireland'.

THE SNAIL AND THE WHALE

THIS year's Christmas show at Exeter Northcott looks set to be a winner with children and grown-ups alike.

Tall Stories, creators of The Gruffalo and Room on the Broom, bring their latest production, The Snail and the Whale, to the theatre for a festive run until December 30th.

This charming play of bravery tells the story of a tiny snail who longs to see the world and hitches a lift on the tail of a humpback whale. What an adventure the pair embark upon, as they journey together across the seas.

But then disaster strikes - the whale gets beached in a bay. Can the brave little snail save the day? Follow the snail's amazing journey, as seen through the eyes of an adventurous young girl and her seafaring father.

Tickets are available online at www.exeternorthcott.co.uk or by calling 01392 493493.

FIRST TIME BUYER?

SPEAK TO US NOW ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT'S 'FIRSTBUY' SCHEME*

Wainhomes are working in partnership with the new Government scheme 'FirstBuy' which aims to make new homes available to eligible buyers currently priced out of the market.

'FirstBuy' is available for a limited time period and enables buyers to take out an affordable mortgage on which repayments are made in the normal way in conjunction with a deposit that the mortgage lender may require (to cover a combined minimum 80% of the total purchase price). The rest of the purchase price will be paid for by equity loans (0% for first 5 years) from the Agency and the house builder. The equity loans supporting the initial purchase mean 'FirstBuy' is a 'stepping stone' to assist buyers into home ownership and is available to households with an income of less than £60,000 per annum.

SPOTLIGHT
ON MY SERVICE
HEAD TO
FEETI first started caring for peoples health in the sixties when I did my S.E.N nursing training in Sheffield.The real introduction to Complementary Medicine was when my second child become ill, and it was only osteopathy that helped her. About the same time a friend of mine was having trouble with her back, she asked me if I could massage it for her, as I seemed to have healing hands, I was able to give her a lot of relief, being in a lot of pain at the time.
I become more and more interested in Complementary Medicine and was able to help my friends and family even more.It wasn't until we came down to live in Axminster, I was working as a Care Assistant in a Dementia Care Home, that I decided to take a course or 3 with the "School of Natural Health Sciences" in Reflexology, Advanced Reflexology", and "Indian Head Massage". I was an
A student. I became a member of the "International College of Holistic Medicine". As Indian Head Massage consists also of back and shoulder massage [as well as neck head and face] with or without out oils I am able to continue with Back and Shoulder massage as a separate therapy if required. I am able to work from home including home visits, and care homes. Treatments usually last about 1hr. and includes perfumed candles and soft relaxing music.Reflexology is massage of the body as a whole through the feet or hands. As with Indian Head Massage it relaxes and stimulates the whole body, thus allowing it to work better. Allowing me to help each client with there own individual needs.As I am also a carer at home I have been able to realize how important these therapies can be.

Ford Ranger grabs another 2013 'Pick-up of the Year' award

THE Ford Ranger has won 4x4 Magazine Pick-Up of the Year 2013, making it a record-breaking seventh award in 12 months for the vehicle.

The UK pick-up market has grown by more than 25 per cent since 2009, with eight models currently competing in the segment. The Ford Ranger has emerged victorious from a group of seven vehicles reviewed – the most comprehensive pick-up test 4x4 Magazine has ever conducted.

Nigel Fryatt, 4x4 Magazine Editor, said: "Ford's new Ranger has significantly raised the bar in the pick-up market. Our extensive test showed the variety of products that are now on the UK market, and the Ranger topped them all with better overall ability, superb ride quality and an interior that makes it hard to believe this is a commercial vehicle. Indeed, no other pick-up came close in terms of interior comfort and specification."

Ford UK managing director, Mark Ovenden, said: "The awards keep on coming for the Ford Ranger as it continues to assert its presence in the market. Our customers have really welcomed the introduction of the all-new model, boosting sales by nearly 20 per cent compared with last year."

Ampera: Gift it, try it, keep it...or return it

AT A time when stress levels are high Vauxhall is spreading a little Christmas joy by eliminating the anxiety associated with choosing the perfect gift.

From today, Vauxhall Ampera buyers will benefit from a 30-day satisfaction guarantee, meaning that you can buy it, try it, and if it doesn't suit, simply return it within 30 days, no questions asked – and even the batteries are included!

This latest introduction adds to an array of stress-busting attributes the 2012 European Car of the Year already delivers, such as...

Zero range anxiety

Thanks to its ground breaking propulsion system the Ampera is the only electric car suitable for all journeys. Electricity stored within the battery powers the wheels for up to 50 miles, this is sufficient for 85 per cent of daily commutes in the UK. However what really sets the Ampera apart is its on-board range extender (a small petrol engine) which seamlessly engages to generate electricity for longer journeys boosting the range by a further 310 miles.

Zero fuel anxiety

Lithium-ion battery technology means you have the potential to run on battery power 100 per cent of the time, therefore bypassing the pumps and ever-rising petrol prices.

Zero VED / congestion charge

Its green credentials ensure that the car is exempt from road tax and congestion charge.

Zero ownership anxiety

Vauxhall's unique Lifetime Warranty offers owners complete peace of mind throughout their ownership of the car.

And now, thanks to the 30 day 'Love it or Return it' scheme, the Ampera comes complete with Zero purchase anxiety.

"This initiative shows the real world confidence we have in Ampera," said Duncan Aldred, Vauxhall's Chairman and Managing Director. "We appreciate that investing in new technology is a big decision which can require a leap of faith for some buyers. It's therefore vital that we demonstrate our belief in Ampera and provide customer reassurance during the buying process. 'Love it or Return it' aims to achieve just that."

Cooper Tire urges drivers to fit winter tyres as temperature drops

FOLLOWING the first winter cold snap to hit the UK, Cooper Tire is urging drivers to replace their summer rubber with tyres made specifically for the cold temperatures and winter road conditions.

During November and December 2011 the UK's average temperature fell from 8.7°C to 4.8°C and Department for Transport figures showed a significant rise in accidents involving slippery roads in the winter months. A similar trend was recorded in 2010.

As soon as temperatures drop below 7°C, specialist winter rubber performs better than regular summer tyres. Winter tyres provide better grip and higher levels of traction when needed.

Estimates say that less than 5% of motorists fit winter tyres to their cars each year which could mean more than 27 million cars on UK roads are now using tyres not suited to the conditions they face each day.

With specially-formulated tyre compounds and deeper tread patterns, winter tyres such as the Cooper WM-SA2 and WeatherMaster Snow provide better grip in lower temperatures whether surfaces are dry, wet or icy, making them ideal for Britain's roads, more than 130,000 miles of which will never see a gritting lorry through the course of the winter.

"Many of us have seen the performance of winter tyres in action on the continent," said Pete McNally, General Manager of Cooper Tires' European Technical Centre. "Anyone who's been on a ski holiday will have seen Europeans driving around on snow with levels of grip that most UK motorists only dream of in the winter.

"British drivers need to realise that winter tyres not only offer a safer option when it snows, they are also specifically designed to operate at temperatures below 7°C, making them ideal from December right through to April when the temperatures usually rise again."

A useful start in Life

Are you maybe thinking of a very useful present for a birthday or Christmas? Then perhaps some driving lessons could be the answer. I have vouchers from £24-£45 or maybe a course of lessons (discounted). It could be the best present ever!

Having a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to coordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins.

If you have already passed your theory test then there is a strong possibility that you can still pass your practical before Christmas. So why not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

David Light teaching safety for life wishes all his past and present pupils a very Happy Christmas and a successful new year.

Successful year for Seaton youngsters

AFTER an amazing year children from the Seaton Success for Life Group have finished 2012 gradings and passed with flying colours. Children ranging from 4 years of age graded for their new belts and are proudly pictured with them.

To top off the year Success 4 Life Mighty Rio Potter (pictured below with Mr Kevin Mills 8th Dan, Mrs Jenni Mills 4th Dan and Mr Amrik Singh 4th Dan) has just attained his black belt at the tender age of 7.

After the gradings it was remarked that these children would be taken anywhere in the world and be respected by Martial Artists of all styles through their skill focus and confidence we agree.

Success 4 Life programmes run at Seaton Martial Arts Centre and are run by Head Instructor Mr Amrik Singh 4th Dan, ably assisted by Mr Matt Palmer who will be going for his black belt next year and Mrs Aurora Singh.

The classes are broken down by age and ability and completely separate classes are held for each group.

For further information and to book a taster session please call Mr Amrik Singh on 07966 444321.

WEEKENDER SPORT puts Perry Street League 529-goal legend GRAHAM 'Percy' VERE UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long did you play local football for? and for which teams?

A About 30 years. I played for Charmouth, Lyme Regis, Drimpton and Misterton.

Q Who were the best three players you played against, and why?

A Clive Gardner (Shepton Beauchamp) - such a big, powerful player. Lethal in front of goal. Andy Bell (Misterton) - Full of skill and artistry, and could get a goal out of nothing. Graham Gold (Misterton) Fantastic organisational skills, he used to run the show at the back.

Q What was your favourite away ground?

A Barrington - I scored six goals in a game there back in 1989.

Q Do any games or incidents stick out in your memory?

A A Dorset Junior cup semi-final at West Moors. It was 0-0 late in the game, we had free-kick and the ball goes through a crowded penalty box and sneaks in the corner and is then kicked out. The referee plays on but the West Moors linesman calls the ref back and tells him ball was over the line. The West Moors players can't believe it - their own linesman puts them out of the cup! We went into the final and won it. An honest linesman, fair play to him.

Q Do you still follow local football?

A I still follow Lyme Regis, and Seaton Town where my son Cameron plays.

Q Have you got any advice for today's young players?

A Keep off the drink on Friday nights, steer well clear of drugs, train hard, stay fit and enjoy it - it's all over too soon - One day you'll be writing one of these! I hope today's players have as much fun as I did and just remember always give it rice!

Wessex area Point-to-Point season preview

Compiled by Brian Armstrong and Bob Bracher

THE 2013 WESSEX Area Point-To-Point Season kicks off on Sunday, January 6th with the Larkhill Racing Club fixture.

Twenty-three meetings are scheduled in Wessex, culminating in the Weston & Banwell's evening fixture on Wednesday, May 15th.

For a free colour leaflet detailing all the meetings in the Wessex area, send an SAE to Gill Armstrong, Pantiles, Penselwood, Wincanton, Somerset BA9 8NF.

Chloe Roddick made a flying start when Mahonia and Combehay won at Wadebridge on December 9th, while Richard Barber got off the mark with PPORC winner Glass'n A Half. Here are some other horses to look out for in 2013.

Devon/Somerset Border

KEITH and Janet Cumings' Bishop's Nympton (near South Molton) yard made a flying start when The Wealerdealer hacked up at Black Forest Lodge on 2 December.

Keith and Janet welcome back Flete and Holnicote winner Certain Flight, Kingston St Mary winner Gone That Way, Another Double Gin and One More Flame, a full-sister to retired stable stalwart Touch Of Flame. Four unraced and unnamed youngsters complete the yard.

Olivia Jackson will campaign three horses from home a few miles from Bishop's Nympton. Ooson and The Mamur Zapt miss 2013, but Olivia has retained Derek Lovell's The Accordionist, who was third at Buckfastleigh.

The newcomers are an unnamed four-year-old mare by Overbury and the interesting hunter chase candidate Restezen D'Armor, a three-time chase winner for Charlie Longsdon.

Somerset

FITZHEAD near Wiveliscombe trainer Gerald Greenway will race his daughter Linda and son-in-law Andrew Pugsley's Awesome George, who showed promise in two outings 12 months ago, and newcomer Justabout, who won five races under Rules for the Colin Tizzard stable.

Owner-trainers George and Debbie Beilby, from Lawford on the Quantocks, have retained Soggy Dollar and Constantius, who will appear later in the season. Carrickmines, who won eight races under Rules for the Richard Newland stable, is an interesting recruit.

Jenny Bult, based at West Newton near Taunton, will again race Lethal Dream, who will be partnered by reigning Wessex Area Champion Alice Mills.

Alice will also continue her association with Sally Hutchings' Tropical Secret, the winner of three races last season, and is looking forward to riding Canada Coombe for Sarah Gordon, who is based in the Weston and Banwell country.

Camilla Scott has 10 horses at Brompton Regis near Dulverton. Gone To Lunch has retired, Southwestern may appear occasionally and Special Account is racing successfully under Rules.

But Camilla welcomes back Feathered Friend, who won both completed outings in 2012, and Wadebridge winner Alright John, who has been bought by The Exmoor Partnership to replace Southwestern.

Larkhill winner Flying Phento, Soul Native and Lad From Highworth are interesting recruits. The string is completed by four unraced and unnamed maidens.

Neil Harris continues as stable jockey and he and his wife, Keri, are likely to saddle some four-year-olds from stables at the Scotts' farm.

Exford's Sharon Westwood, who has taken over the pointers from her daughter, Jess, sent out Degenerate to finish fourth at Black Forest Lodge on 2 December.

Sharon's stable is completed by Geton Xmoor, who finished fourth in a Newton Abbot bumper, Tizzy Blue, who may go hunter chasing and the ex-Ashley Farrant-trained Wadebridge runner-up Party Pictures.

Julie Pocock has four pointers at her Stol- ford yard near Bridgwater. Julie welcomes back her grand campaigner Dandooley and Amber Love, who came right back to her best last season and may go hunter chasing.

The newcomers are unraced five-year-old geldings Crackacan by Karinga Bay and Highland Thistle by Kirkwall.

Charlotte Budd has three horses at her Enmore home near Bridgwater. Think On This, who returns after missing 2012, and the consistent Havenstone will go hunter chasing.

Nearly Midnight showed promise in three 2012 outings and should have little difficulty landing a maiden contest.

Alex Dunn has five horses at West Buckland including her prolific trio Picaroon, who refused to race at Wadebridge, Double Mead and Rainbow Tree.

Newcomers are Ruby Kew, who was fifth in her sole outing for licensed trainer Alan King, and the ex-David Pipe-trained dual hurdle race winner Arrayan, who started favourite for the 2011 Imperial Cup at Sandown.

Saxton near Bridgwater first season trainers David Prichard and Becky Furber made a promising start when Andrew Lowrie's Volio Vincente finished third at Black Forest Lodge.

David and Becky have six or seven pointers and hunter chasers including Martys Mission, a gift horse from Andy Stewart and a possible novice riders' race ride for Becky, plus Larkhill winner Noble Aran and Our Jess for their landlord, Ray Barrow.

Bilbrook near Minehead owner-trainers Philip and Sarah Hobbs, who retired Saint Rumble after his fourth consecutive Minehead Harriers & West Somerset hunt race win, will race Supreme Duke, who ended Chesnut Annie's 20 point-to-point-winning sequence in his only outing between the flags to date.

North Petherton's Suzy Berry will again race the ultra-consistent Ha Ho Magregor and Cover Version, who got off the mark at Holnicote in May.

Sue Popham has four horses at her Welling-ton stables, including Carlos Gardel, a winner at Wadebridge last season.

Newcomers include Doncaster purchases Only The Best, who was second at Stratford in April, and Getaway Driver, who has been placed five times under Rules. Swansbrook, the winner of a bumper, hurdle race and chase under Rules, completes the team.

Jane Western has four horses at Forde Abbey near Chard. Jane has retained dual 2012 winner Benedictus, who will be aimed at hunter chases, and Last Minute Notice, who ran a promising race at Bratton Down in May.

Newcomers are Shootin The Breeze, a winner at Thurles in February 2012, and Gypsy Jack, the winner of two of his three points when trained by Richard Barber.

Shaakier and Stantway Surprise have retired, so Colin and Julie Bright of Combe St Nicholas near Chard will be represented by Irish bumper and hurdle race winner Some Slam, who was bought at Ascot in June out of Gary Moore's yard. Michael Legg will take the ride.

Chloe Roddick has a strong team at Wellow near Bath, including Wadebridge winners Mahonia (a likely candidate for the Aintree Fox-hunter), Combehay and Mike Sheppard's prolific Sericina, a runner-up at Wadebridge and likely to benefit from a recent wind operation.

Bonvilston winner Dear Villez, who will be suited to long distance hunter chases, also returns. Newcomers include Gordon Fox's Ascot purchase Young Jim, the winner of an Irish maiden, Fairytale Theatre, a half-sister to the prolific On The Bridge, and Stephen Kemble's unnamed three-year-old Kayf Tara filly, who is related to Becher Chase winner Mr Pointment.

Charles Whittaker has eight pointers to run from his yard at Gare Hill near Frome. Dual 2012 winner Pertinent, Starburst Diamond, Now Listen to Me, who was third in his single 2012 hunter chase outing, and Towcester hunter chase winner Pistolet Noir return.

Newcomers to the stable include Ruapehu, the winner of two Irish points last season and in contention when the tack slipped at Barbury Castle, and the top-class Cheltenham Festival winner Taranis, who may be aimed at Larkhill's Coronation Gold Cup.

Rode near Frome trainer Sarah Hawker will campaign three or four horses this season. Lidjo De Rouge is joined by Solaise Express, who has been placed in two hurdle races for Sarah's husband Richard, and the interesting ex-Willie Mullins-trained Jayo, the winner of seven races in Ireland.

Angela Davis has taken out a permit, so her daughter Charlotte takes over the point-to-point yard at Sutton Montis near Sparkford.

Charlotte has retired Lutteur Bleu, who won the ex-racehorse class at Frome Show in September, but will race Champagne Rosie, who has twice finished fourth under Rules in owner John Meaden's well-known colours before putting in an excellent performance when third at Barbury Castle on December 9th.

Sarah Gould has four pointers at the family farm at Cranmore near Shepton Mallet. Sarah retains Special Occasion, who will be ridden by her sister, Lucy, while stalwart Own Line may return to contest the South & West Wilts hunt race.

Sarah recently launched Withy Wood Racing Club, an eight-strong group of family and local friends, who will be represented by Littlewindsor winner No Excuses and five-year-old newcomer Camp Kerala, who failed to finish in two Irish points last season.

Bruton owner-trainers Rose and Sam Loxton will race again Oslet, who landed a Bratton Down ladies' open before a superb success in a Stratford hunter chase in June.

Commander Vic has retired, so Frances Bishop will race former Haldon Gold Cup winner Pablo Du Charmil from her Wincanton home.

Stuart Penny, who enjoyed a splendid second season with 10 wins, begins 2012/13 from new stables at Inwood, near Henstridge. Stuart has retained Hazel Goody's three-time winner Quedillac and Who Else Knew, another three race winner last season.

The Dufosse family's Stalbridgeswansong - in the frame in all six outings last season - and 2012 winners Silver Monarch, Ashton Magic and Woodbridge Quest all return.

Newcomers include Manjam, the winner of two races under Rules, including a May Fontwell handicap hurdle, before being purchased at Ascot in June.

Marilyn Burrough plans to run four horses from her Higher Halstock Leigh near Yeovil base. Bratton Down winner Denise's Dip, On Oath and Standing Order are joined by Jam Tomorrow, a Sagacity gelding bought out of Donald McCain's stable in June 2012.

Henley near Crewkerne licensed trainer Bob Buckler will again race the consistent Different Trades, who was in the frame in each of his three 2011/12 outings.

Ryan Bliss, now also based at Henley, has six horses for the new season. Beady Eye, Michael Dare's Mishkaluch and Dunnick's Toffee return.

Newcomers are Jill Miller's Master Polo, an unraced gelding out of the high-class Miss O'Grady, an unraced mare for Fred Tucker and the interesting Rock Of Deauville, winner of two French flat races and sixth in Cheltenham's 2011 Fred Winter Hurdle when trained by Paul Nicholls.

Kate Nutt, who works for Ryan, is likely to ride Helen Barber's In The Circle in novice rider and ladies' races.

Chloe Newman has three horses at Woolminstone near Crewkerne. Chloe hopes to qualify Sobre Tresor for Exeter's Intermediate Final and also welcomes back Tikkeche, who was unplaced in three outings last season.

Robert and Janet Gibbs' Two Bob, a promising third in a 14-runner April 2011 Chepstow hurdle for the Philip Hobbs yard, is interesting. Chloe's brother-in-law Nick Taylor will saddle his dual 2011/12 winner Tres Bien. Josh Newman will again partner the family's runners.

Next - The Devon/Dorset border and Dorset.

Karting at Dunkeswell in good shape

THE 2012 season at the Dunkeswell Kart Club provided some of the closest and most competitive racing in the club's history with driving standards also improving throughout the year.

Looking back over the year, 931 drivers competed at the South West's premier circuit with numbers peaking at 121 for the July round.

If any circuit is bucking the national trend in entries, Dunkeswell is at the forefront of the revival - a flowing, super smooth track with close and competitive racing aligned with a friendly atmosphere has attracted drivers from all over the country.

The NKRA chose the circuit to host the prestigious Formula Blue championship and a tie up with Llandow Kart Club with the Dragon Challenge saw most of the silverware crossing the bridge back to the West Country!

Interestingly, weather wise, despite the tracks reputation, the dry weather out qualified the wet by 6 to 3 although when it rained it was biblical!

The Honda cadets provided some great action, the exuberance of youth and most importantly, big grids. Over the eight rounds, two drivers dominated the top of the standings - Ryan Luscombe and Jordan Hurman.

Luscombe's early championship lead was lost after the first round and he had to fight Hurman to get it back by round four.

After that, he maintained it to take the title by 18 points with Hurman second and Tom Canning in third. Hurman and Luscombe also took the honours in the Dragon Challenge showing exceptional sportsmanship by electing to share the title rather than see who would win it on count back.

The Comer cadets was a small grid and in reality with Alex Quinn away on Super 1 duties, it was left to Tommy Foster and Kieran Channing, the only two club drivers to compete in all eight rounds to fight it out for the title.

Foster's experience showed through and he dominated the races that Quinn was absent from.

Foster took the title with Channing having an excellent season in second, despite only competing in four of the eight rounds, Quinn was third. Foster's year was capped by his victory in the Dragon Challenge. MiniMax and another Channing was on the hunt for a title!

Sam Stephens took an early lead in the standings but by round three Izaac Channing was topping the table and would hold it to take not only the class championship but also the South West Championship title on the way.

Stephens kept him honest all the way and it only by a margin of six points that he lost out coming second but was boosted by his winning the Dragon Challenge. David Spillers consistency got his third in his first full season.

Junior Max and Sam Morgan's early lead was cut short by round three when James Moorcroft dominated from then on. Liam Williams was putting in some good results and moved into second in the championship.

Moorcroft was the class of the field at the South West Championships when despite not finishing a heat still man-

Williams' best efforts to hold second failed when he was nudged into third spot by Morgan who managed to accrue enough points in the last round after the dropped scores were taken into account.

Both Moorcroft and Morgan were successful in the Dragon Challenge after the stewards awarded them equal status as champions. James Clarkson was peerless in the Senior Max class leading from round one.

It was left to Stewart Baker and Tyler Weedon to battle it out for second and third. The youth of Weedon saw him gain the upper hand in the early rounds as Baker held a watching brief. By round seven, Baker's persistence and experience enabled him to pull out a four-point lead and move into second in the championship.

Out in front, Clarkson was putting points between him and the rest of the grid finishing 43 points ahead of Baker who in turn was 11 points clear of Weedon in third.

Fourth placed driver, Ashley Lewis, having his best season in Seniors so far, took the honours for the club in the Dragon Challenge.

It was brilliant to see a resurgence in the 177 class with grids topping 15 plus in most rounds. Defending champion Darren Lane had a slow start but by round three had got into his stride and was on top of the standings.

The hugely experienced Rob Knight, fended off Wayne Stone to take second in the championship with Stone some 69 points behind him in third place. But Stone could console himself with his victory in the Dragon Challenge.

As with all racing, nothing would be possible without the tireless work of the circuit management group, especially circuit manager, Paul Bromham, the MSA officials, the medical teams and, of note, the marshalling team who have remained focused and professional whatever the conditions.

Special thanks must also go to the drivers and mechanics who have provided the swelling crowds of spectators with some close, competitive and most importantly safe racing and whose attendance have proven beyond doubt that Dunkeswell continues to be the place to race.
